

Road to The Isles (1)

Scored:
09-06-25

March, Scotland, melody: traditional?, words: Kenneth MacLeod, circa 1917

1) PMF arrangement: form: AB, AB, Coda (work in progress)

Verse $\text{♩} = 120$ (midi:80)

Oh, a far croon - in' is pull-in' me a-way, as — take I wi' my cromach to the road. — Oh, the far Cool - ins are put - tin' love on me, as step I wi' the sun-light for my load. Sure, by

Chorus

Tummel and Loch Rannoch and Loch - a - ber I will go, by — heath-er tracks wi' heaven in their wiles. — If it's think-in' in your in-ner heart the braggart's in my step, you've ne-ver smelt the tang-le of the Isles. Oh, the far Cool - ins are put - tin' love on me, as step I wi' my cro-mach to the isles.

Coda

Notes:

- The vocal version adds coda to every chorus
- PMF may play VV, CC